THE SCHOOL OF LAW

GENERAL STATEMENT

The Night School of Law of Loyola University was established in October, 1914. During the first year of its existence the classes were held in the Alumni Hall of the College of the Immaculate Conception, Common and Baronne Streets. An increase in the student-body made the removal of the school necessary, and it was decided to use a portion of Marquette Hall, located on the University campus near St. Charles Avenue. In September, 1925, the Day School of Law was inaugurated, in order to meet the standards of the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association and of the Association of American Law Schools. In 1931 the need for more library space and additional classroom space necessitated the removal of the School of Law to Bobet Hall, the latest addition to the University buildings. Here it is housed, occupying the entire ground floor, where there is ample space for all of its present necessities.

The curriculum of studies covers a period of three years in the Day Course, and four years in the Night Course, at the end of which the degree of Bachelor of Laws is conferred on those who have passed successfully the required examinations in the entire course..

The School of Law is on the list of schools approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association, which approval is dependent upon meeting and maintaining certain standards as to entrance requirements, faculty, library and curriculum. The School of Law is also registered as an approved school on the list of the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York.

The American Bar Association standards are set forth in the following resolutions, adopted in 1921:

“(1) The American Bar Association is of the opinion that every candidate for admission to the bar should give evidence of graduation from a law school complying with the following standards:

“(a) It shall require as a condition of admission at least two years of study in a college.

“(b) It shall require its students to pursue a course of three years’ duration if they devote substantially all of their working time to their studies, and a longer course, equivalent to the number of working hours, if they devote only part of their working time to their studies.

“(c) It shall provide an adequate library available for the use of the students.

“(d) It shall have among its teachers a sufficient number giving their entire time to the school to insure actual personal acquaintance with the whole student body.

“(2) The American Bar Association is of the opinion that graduation from a law school should not confer the right of admission to the bar, and that every candidate should be subjected to an examination by public authority to determine his fitness.

“(3) The Council on Legal Education and Admission to the Bar is directed to publish from time to time the names of those law schools which comply with the above standards and of those which do not, and to make such publication available so far as possible to intending law students.”

The policy set forth in these resolutions has been consistently and vigorously adhered to in subsequent meetings of the American Bar Association.

The Faculty of the Law School, mindful of its responsibilities in the matter of improving the standards of legal education in this State, and, from long experience, being convinced of the soundness of the standards advocated by the Bar Association, announced in 1925 its determination to comply therewith. Accordingly, increased educational requirements for entrance were announced; a day school having a three-year course of instruction was inaugurated for those students who could devote substantially their entire time to the study of law; the course in the evening school was lengthened to four years; additions were made to the full-time faculty; and the library was greatly enlarged.

COURSE OF STUDY

While it is the primary purpose of the School of Law to educate lawyers for practice in Louisiana, the faculty recognizes that a broad legal training is an indispensable requisite to the successful practice of law. Accordingly, the study of the common law, which prevails in the other States, is not neglected. The civil law system, so peculiar to our State, necessitates a detailed study of the Civil Code of Louisiana, which is based on the Code of Napoleon. The decisions of the Louisiana courts construing, interpreting and applying our written law must be carefully studied.

The curriculum is planned with the view of giving the student a sound legal training. Courses are given in the various branches of the common law, following the conventional lines of the courses given in most of the law schools of the country. The law curriculum is particularly desirable for the student of comparative law who wishes to study the actual operation of the civil law side by side with the common law.

THE FACULTY

The faculty is composed of six full-time professors who devote their entire time and attention to university work. In addition, a few courses are given by part-time instructors who are eminent and active practitioners in the city of New Orleans, and who are selected with reference to their particular ability to give the course assigned to them. In this manner the students are in contact not only with a staff of men who make teaching their chief pursuit, but the students have the added advantage of personal contact with the active practitioners, who are all experts in their particular fields. The relatively small student-body of the Law School increases the opportunity for personal contact between faculty and students, with the resultant benefits to be derived from individual attention and conferences.

LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library is open every day for the use of students. It contains more than 12,000 volumes, including the reports of the United States Supreme Court and of the inferior Federal courts; the National Reporter System, including the New York

Supplement; the reports of the courts of last resort of most of the states complete to the National Reporter System; the American Digest System; the leading, State, Federal, and English digests; the principal law encyclopedias; sets of annotated selected cases; the English Reports, Full Reprint and a complete set of the Law Reports; complete sets of most of the leading American legal periodicals; a large number of standard text-books; the Law Library of Chief Justice Edward Douglass White, which was donated to the Law School, is a part of the collection.

The study of the civil law is aided by a wealth of material contained in the works of the leading French authorities. The Law Library contains one of the most complete collections of French law books in the State, including a valuable collection of the various editions of the Louisiana Civil Code.

The faculty and students of the School of Law wish to acknowledge with sincerest gratitude the various donations made by Miss Eleanor Del Bondio to their library, offices, classrooms and corridor. The library in particular is very conducive to earnest study.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

In addition to meeting the requirements for admission to the College of Arts and Sciences, applicants for admission to the Law School must have completed their eighteenth year at the time of registration. In accordance with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association, students entering the Law School must present satisfactory proof that they have completed "one-half of the work acceptable for a Bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study by the State University or the principal colleges or universities in the State where the Law School is located."

PRE-LEGAL REQUIREMENTS

Students are advised in shaping their pre-legal course to adhere closely to the regular Freshman and Sophomore courses in the College of Arts and Sciences. A departure therefrom may cause an application to be rejected. The applicant's record in his pre-legal work must be of such a character as to indicate that the applicant will be able to do satisfactory work in the Law School. An applicant who has failed to receive an average of "C" or better in at least seventy-five per cent of his pre-legal work will be refused admission. Pre-legal credit will not be given for courses without substantial intellectual content.

ADVANCED STANDING

Students who have successfully pursued a portion of their law course in an approved Law School (that is, a school which is a member of the Association of American Law Schools or approved by the American Bar Association), and who are able to meet the entrance requirements of this Law School, will receive credit for work successfully pursued in such approved school. The right is reserved to refuse such credit in whole or in part, and credit given may be withdrawn for poor work. At least one year's residence is required of advanced students or they will not be eligible for a degree. Therefore, credit given for work in another law school shall not exceed two years.

A student who has attended another law school, and who has been dropped for defective scholarship, is not eligible for admission to this Law School unless special permission is obtained, which permission shall be in the discretion of the Dean.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Students who are not candidates for a degree, and who are twenty-three years of age, and who have a high school education, may be admitted to the Law School as special students, in the discretion of the Dean of the Law School.

The number of such special students admitted in any year shall not exceed ten per cent of the average number of beginning law students admitted during each of the two preceding years.

No student shall be admitted as a special student except where special circumstances, such as the maturity and the apparent ability of the student, seem to justify a deviation from the rule requiring at least two years of college work.

COMBINED COURSES

A student by a proper selection of courses in the College of Arts and Sciences, after completing three years of college work, may be eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Philosophy by combining the first year of law work with the work completed in the College of Arts and Sciences. In this manner it is possible to receive an academic degree and the professional law degree in six years.

Students electing to take the combined courses must obtain the approval of the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. Students registered in the Law School will not be permitted to take work in the College of Arts and Sciences without special permission from the Dean of the Law School.

The Faculty strongly advises those contemplating the study of law to arrange their college work in such a manner that they may take the combined course, with the resulting advantage of a broader background for the study of the law.

REQUIREMENTS FOR LAW DEGREE

The curriculum of studies covers a period of three years in the Day Course, and four years in the Night Course. The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) will be conferred on students who have completed satisfactorily the course of eighty semester hours, as outlined in this Bulletin.

EXAMINATIONS AND SPECIAL REGULATIONS

Examinations are given at the end of each of the two semesters into which the scholastic year is divided. The alphabetical system of grading is used. The grades A, B, C, D, E and F will be given. The percentage values and qualities of work indicated by these grades are as follows:

Grade	Quality of Work	Percentages
A.....	Excellent	93 - 100
B.....	Good	85 - 92
C.....	Fair	77 - 84
D.....	Bare Pass.....	66 - 76
E.....	Condition	50 - 65
F.....	Failure	Below 50

The lowest passing grade is "D." The condition indicated by the grade "E" may be removed by successfully passing a second examination. A mark of "F" cannot be made up by examination, and the subject must be repeated in class.

In addition to passing the examination in the courses, a student, in order to graduate, must earn a number of "quality credits" equal to the number of hour credits required for graduation. No student will be graduated until he has fulfilled both the credit hour requirement and the quality credit requirement.

Quality credits are earned according to the following schedule:

Grade	Quality Credits per Credit Hour
A	3
B	2

Every student must attain a passing grade in at least one-half of the work on which he is examined in any semester. He must also obtain quality credits in at least one-third of such work. Any student who fails to meet both of these requirements shall be excluded from the Law School during the next regular semester. Students who have been excluded from the School of Law for failure to meet the minimum scholastic requirements will be readmitted only by special action of the Faculty.

No student will be permitted to schedule more than fifteen hours of law work or work in another department of the University in any semester without special permission from the Dean of the Law School.

A student whose work is unsatisfactory during any session may be denied permission to carry a full schedule during the following semester. The Faculty reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student whose work is unsatisfactory even though the student meets the minimum scholastic requirements.

REMOVAL OF CONDITIONS

Examinations for the removal of conditions may be permitted in the discretion of the faculty. The condition examinations will be given immediately preceding registration, on the dates set out in the bulletin. If the condition examination is passed successfully, the grade of "E" may be converted into "D," but no quality credits will be given for such second examination. Students may be denied the privilege of taking the condition examination and required to repeat the course where the circumstances are such as to indicate that such procedure is more desirable.

FEES AND EXPENSES

Matriculation Fee (to be paid by all students entering the Law School).....	$5.00
Registration Fee (payable each year).....	5.00
Tuition ($70.00 semi-annually).....	140.00
Library Fee	10.00
Athletic Fee.....	10.00
Student Publication Fee.....	10.00
Graduation Fee (payable in senior year).....	25.00

The Athletic Fee confers on Law students the privilege of attending all college games and events. The Student Publication Fee entitles the student to receive all college publications.

The Tuition Fee is payable semi-annually in advance, on the date of registration and on the day on which the second semester begins. Any student failing to register during the fixed registration days, or failing to pay tuition at the appointed time, will be taxed an extra fee of three dollars for the first week and five dollars for each succeeding week. All other fees, except Graduation Fee, must be paid on or before registration. Students in arrears will not be permitted to take the examinations.

REGISTRATION

Students intending to enter the School must register between the dates fixed. A certificate of character and conduct will be required of all applicants.

All High School units and College credits must be submitted prior to registration.

LIVING EXPENSES FOR STUDENTS

Good board and lodging can be secured near the School at very reasonable rates. The University is equipped with a very fine modern cafeteria, operated under private management, where excellent meals may be obtained at very low rates.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Many bright and ambitious men and women, of approved moral character, are deprived of the opportunity of entering upon the study of law because of lack of funds. To meet this situation, the University must look to generous benefactors who, in their charity, wish to help native sons and daughters in this way by supplying funds necessary to care for a student's tuition.

A Perpetual Scholarship is founded when an endowment of $3,000.00 is set aside for that purpose.

Scholarships cover the tuition fee only. The holder of the scholarship must pay the special fees at the beginning of the year, and must at all times set an example of good conduct and serious application. The honor will be forfeited by any holder of a scholarship whose grades or conduct during the semester are unsatisfactory.
